Every effort should be made to avoid taking family holidays during term time as this both disrupts the child's education and reduces learning time. All Scottish Schools must adhere to the Scottish Government Education Department Circular No. 5/03 School Attendance and Absence in which it states:

"The majority of family holidays taken during term time should be categorised as unauthorised absence. However, it is acceptable under exceptional circumstances for schools to authorise a family holiday during term time. Such circumstances may include: A family holiday judged to be important to the wellbeing and cohesion of the family, following serious or terminal illness, bereavement or other traumatic events."

Class work will not be given to pupils who have unauthorised absences during term time.
